

Mendoza Simon

I'm a Venezuelan-born, half-Italian designer who has had the unique opportunity to study in Asia from a young age. Since the age of 10 I have lived in places such as Malaysia, Brunei, India, and eventually starting university at the Savannah College of Art and Design in their Hong Kong campus.

For my last year of University, I decided to take advantage of SCAD's many campuses and pursued my final year in the city of Savannah, GA.
